

Amos Rozier – Guitar, Harmonica and Vocals – Amos, originally from down east near Lumberton NC, has made Durham NC his home for the past 28 years. Like countless other musicians he got his early musical experience in the church choir in the 60's and 70's.

While still living in Lumberton, in 1978 he co-founded the Country Rock group "Borderline" of which he was guitarist and lead vocalist thru the mid 80's. From the mid 80's thru 1988 he was original member of Variety & Beach music group "Scottfree" as lead vocalist and played the guitar, harp and percussion.

In 1991 he moved to Durham NC and got married in 1993.

In 1998 Amos got involved with the music program at Freedom Baptist Church of which he is currently Music Director and has played and sang with Gospel groups such as "Redemption", "Deliverance" and Bluegrass Gospel groups "Crossroads", "Carolina Country Bluegrass", among others.

In 2007 & 2008 he played guitar and mandolin with an all original music group "Justice Street".

Amos was a member of the Variety, Beach, Country and R&B group "Stur Krazy" out of Durham from 2003 to 2013 where he played guitar, harp, percussion and was lead vocalist.
